

Red Clover

Trifolium pratense

Red clover flowers from May to September.

Red clover flowers are actually pink!

The leaves are large and marked with a V.

Red clover is used in traditional medicine.

It's sometimes called 'bee-bread',
'honeystalks' or 'suckbottles' –
because of the sweet nectar.

Meadow Makers

Arnside & Silverdale
Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty