

Skylark

Alauda arvensis

Skylark populations in the UK halved during the 1990s. This is thought to be linked to changes in how we farm.

Skylarks have a distinctive head tuft, spotty brown backs and a cream coloured chest.

Meadow Makers